Top and above Daly upholstered the headboard in a silk-cotton from Osborne & Little. 'Upholstery is a similar process to painting; you start with a blank canvas, then build it up, adding a frill or a button until it becomes its own piece.' The lamps are from Howie & Belle (howieandbelle.com). Daly's Lollipop chair is hand-pleated and covered in Emotion scarlet silk-satin from Tassinari & Chatel at Lelièvre (020 7352 4798). 'It's one of my favourite fabrics to work with.'

Left The stair runner is actually six Ikea rugs stitched together. 'It was a temporary fix as we had visitors coming.'
