

LEFT

'You have to think about how your family will best enjoy their time at home,' says Jagger. The chill-out area in House No 1 has an ocean view and is full of comfy cushions to help with recovering from the hedonistic Ibiza lifestyle

BELOW

Jagger, wearing a Queen of Teens T-shirt, perches on the outdoor dining table, the focal point for the family at House No 2. 'I love cooking. My indulgence is food,' she says. 'In the UK, I have an Aga, so I do a lot of roasting — all the classics, really. Clearly, it's too hot for much of that over here. One day, I would like to go on Celebrity Masterchef'

LEFT

The kitchen at House No 1. 'I feel you should invest in your kitchen, as it's where you spend most of your family time'

RIGHT

The living room is also a dining area and doubles up as an extra guest bedroom. 'I like multipurpose spaces that can be adapted for when you're feeling very family-orientated,' Jagger says. Because she lives in Ibiza, guests area regular occurrence. 'When Marc Jacobs visited, he went to my dressing-up box, pulled on some clothes and jumped straight in the pool'

GET THE LOOK

1 Bar stool, £75; dwell.co.uk 2 Moose horns, £195; theoldcinema.co.uk 3 Appliqué cushion, £15; tch.net 4 Moroccan lantern, £5; dunelm-mill.com 5 Jarris floor cushion, £242, by Missoni Home; amara.co.uk