

THE KITCHEN/DINING AREA, LEFT Like most of Sarah and Henrik's furniture, the dining table and chairs are vintage. 'I rarely buy anything new,' says Sarah. Retrouvius has a good range of antique tables (from £1,250, tel: 020 8960 6060, retrouvius.com). The linen tablecloth is from the Conran Shop (£35, 150cm x 220cm, tel: 0844 848 4000, conranshop.co.uk) and the coloured lamps are by Sarah's mother, ceramic and glass artist Susanne Bagner (who can be contacted through Sarah)

THE CLOAKROOM, BELOW FAR LEFT Paintings from Henrik's collection line the walls. The crown is by up-and-coming designer Fred Butler (fredbutlerstyle.com)

'I love to sell things with a story behind them, things that are one of a kind'

THE LIVING AREA, LEFT The lower ground floor is one large open-plan space that Sarah has divided into a kitchen, living and dining area. A cowhide rug 'zones off' the living area (WovenGround sells a similar Matador rug, from £369, tel: 020 7033 3741, wovenground.com). Sarah bought the zigzag wool throw that covers the sofa in Sweden, where her parents are from - try Missoni Home for one like this (from £218, from Amara, tel: 0800 587 7645, amara.co.uk). The 'Jesus Loves Me' banner is by Phoebe Eason and is available on Sarah's website and the trunk was bought at Brighton Marina Market - Sarah's regular haunt for vintage pieces. Sarah customises figurines, such as the ones on the chest, by drip-painting them - they are one of her signature pieces (from £35 each). The Union Jack cushion is by Vivienne Westwood for the Rug Company (£320, tel: 020 7229 5148, therugcompany.info) >
